

What are some of the things people usually do to help the environment?

Take the time to write your ideas to use them latter

Are there any questions you would avoid answering?

Read both situations.

A; Take some minutes to ask the questions

B Listen a check if you want to answer or avoid answering

SITUATION 1

Student A

Your friend has just started a new job, and you want to know all about it!

Ask your friend:

- What kind of company is it?
- How many people work there?
- What is your boss like? How old is she?
- How much vacation do you get?
- What is your salary? Do you get a bonus? How much?
- I want to work there! Can you give me your boss's email so I can ask her for a job?

SITUATION 1

Student B

You have just started a new job, and your friend is going to ask you all about it!

If you don't want to answer a question, you can avoid it. Here is some information about the job:

- Company: Cambridge Ad Agency.
- 100-200 people work for the agency.
- Your boss is a really funny woman named Amber. She looks like she's in her early 30s.
- Your salary is $52,300. You get three weeks of vacation and a 4.5% bonus in December.
- Your boss's email is amber@cambridge.org.

SITUATION 2Student A

Your co-worker is going to get married soon, and you want to know all about the wedding!

Ask your co-worker:

- Who are you going to marry?
- What does this person do? How much money does he / she make?
- How much did the ring cost?
- When and where is the wedding going to be?
- Are you stressed about the wedding plans? Is anyone arguing about it?
- How many people are coming to the wedding? Are you going to invite anyone from the office?

SITUATION 2Student B

You are getting married soon, and your co-worker is going to ask you all about it!

If you don't want to answer a question, you can avoid it. Here is some information:

- You are going to marry someone named Pat.
- Pat is a teacher at a local high school and makes $57,400 a year.
- The ring cost $1,480.
- The wedding is going to be on June 17 in a pretty garden 145 km from town.
- You are very stressed about the wedding, and you and Pat often argue about it.
- About 100 people are coming to the wedding. You are going to invite a few co-workers, but not the person you're talking to.
