

PART III: EVERYDAY ENGLISH: Use the sentences (a-e) to complete the dialogue.

Debbie: Hi Bill, how are you?

Bill: Oh, hi Debbie, I'm fine thanks. I'm glad I ran into you because 1) .....

Debbie: 2) ..... Well, here I am.

Bill: I need your help with something. 3) .....

Debbie: Well, I will certainly help if I can.
What is it?

Bill: There is a demonstration next week and I need help putting up banners.

Debbie: 4) ..... The demonstration, I mean.

Bill: We are trying to do something about global warming.

Debbie: 5) ..... I would be happy to help you.

- a That's a great thing to be a part of.
- b I've been looking for you.
- c It's very important to me.
- d Sure. What's it for?
- e Really? Is that so?

PART IV: READING

I. The people below want to do something good for their community. Read the description of eight campaigns to help the community, and decide which campaign would be the most suitable for each person.

1. Dan works in the local park and in his spare time he enjoys gardening. Because he has two children, he would like to do something that children would benefit from. ☐

2. Marcia has never volunteered before and because she is still in school, she has no real skills to offer. She likes to help others, is very sociable, and gets along well with ☐

3. Rebecca works as a nurse during the day but would like to do something in the evening. When she's not working, she likes to spend time in the kitchen trying out new recipes. ☐

4. Simon has been working as an architect for the last fifteen years. He is a little shy and doesn't feel comfortable around large groups of people. He would like to do something that will last for a long time. ☐

5. Holly cooks, cleans, and looks after her three young children every day and doesn't get out of the house a lot. She wants something that she can do from her own home... ☐

Community Campaigns

A Friend for Life is an organization that tries to give a little help and comfort to the elderly in society. Members are encouraged to visit the elderly in their homes and see if they need anything. Help could range from doing the shopping to simply having a friendly chat. No experience necessary.

B A Clean Sweep aims to improve the town by cleaning the streets. Teams of volunteers meet and pick up all the litter that is ruining the image of the community. A different street is chosen every week and the clean-up takes place on the weekend.

C Watch Your Garden Grow is a group of people who want to improve the appearance of the town by planting trees, bushes, and flowers in areas that have been abandoned. Not only does it make the area more attractive, but it creates spaces where children can play safely.

D Paint the Town Red started three years ago when a few local residents painted over some walls that had been covered in graffiti. Members meet two evenings a week to repaint public walls. The paint is supplied by the town council and all you have to bring is a little bit of enthusiasm and a paint brush!

E Re-Fashion aims to help the poor by giving them clothes that people do not want any more. There are a number of ways to help out. You can either collect the clothes or take them to those in need. You can also wash and iron the clothes at home if you want.

F Brick By Brick is an organization that chooses an old abandoned building and rebuilds it so that it can be used by various charities. There are not many members, but they are all experienced builders so you will need some knowledge of construction if you want to lend a helping hand.

G Hit the Beach believes that tourists are ruining our coastline and every weekend it organizes a clean up of the nearest beaches. This is a very popular campaign because the group often has a beach party at the end of a busy day. Don't worry though, they take home all their litter!

H Home Street Home helps the many homeless in our town. Based in an old office building, the charity provides a regular evening meal and medical advice to those in need. Volunteers with hospital experience are particularly in demand.

II. Read the articles carefully then decide if each sentence is correct or incorrect. If it is correct, mark it as C. If it is not correct, mark it as I and correct the mistake.

NATIONAL MEDIA MUSEUM

The award-winning National Media Museum, based in Bradford, West Yorkshire, is home to ten galleries, two screening rooms, and an IMAX theater. It is an exciting center in the heart of northern England devoted to film, photography, and television. There's so much to do that you'll simply have to come back more than once.

Film

- Our two screening rooms regularly show both modern and classic movies and we often welcome guests from the movie industry to talk about their work.
- Our large-screen IMAX theater offers a daily program of exciting movies in both 2-D and 3-D.
- We organize three major film festivals every year – The Bradford International Film Festival in March, The Mango Festival in September, and The Bradford Animation Festival in November.
- Further information on all movies and events can be found on our website.

Television

"Well, gentlemen, you have now invented the biggest time-waster ever." This is what Isaac Shoenberg said to his development team at EMI following a demonstration of their first electronic television in 1934. Over three quarters of a century later, television is the most popular form of entertainment and you'll find the world's largest collection of television technology right here at the National Media Museum. Our collection takes you back to the late 19th century when television was just a dream for inventors and the word "television" didn't even exist.

Photography

Photography plays an important role in our understanding of the world. When you visit the National Media Museum you can visit the Kodak Gallery which takes you on a journey through the history of popular photography, from the world's first snapshots to today's digital images. Exhibits on display are taken from the 35,000 objects and images donated by Kodak Ltd., in the 1980s.

1. The museum holds a film festival every three years.
☒
2. The museum does not give out information on the Net.
☒
3. Isaac Shoenberg thought television was not a good way to spend one's time.
☒
4. The museum has exhibits that are over a century old.
☒
5. Kodak Ltd. has donated more than 35,000 exhibits since the 1980s.
☒