

What are they doing?

Hi, there. I'm Sarah. Today is Saturday. My class normally visits a museum on Saturdays but today it's snowing heavily so the visit has been cancelled. At the moment, all of us are sitting in the lounge and everyone is doing different things:

A. Look at the picture and write the names:

- is playing the guitar.
- is reading comics.
- are playing video games.
- are playing chess.
- Jack and Karen are doing a puzzle. They love that!
- is washing the dishes.

B. Write the actions they are doing. Use : study, sleep, write, have, watch

- DJ, Peter and Steve are sitting on the sofa. They TV.
Well, Steve isn't watching. He!
- Albert and Pam are sitting at the table. They coffee.
- Liz, my best friend , as usual. She's the best student in our class.
- And me? Well, I'm this letter to you!
