Dear John,

I'm sorry I couldn't write to you earlier because I was very busy. Now, we're staying in a small hotel near a shopping area in London. Near my hotel, there's a cinema, a post office, a supermarket and some cafés. There are some big shops at the end of the street. It is also very noisy here because there's always a lot of traffic, day and night.

In my hometown, I live in a quieter street. There are some small shops, a school and a post office in my neighbourhood but there isn't a park and a cinema. The streets are narrower but they are cleaner and there isn't so much traffic. The air is much fresher, too. And every house has a backyard and a front yard.

Love,

Tom
