

Cumulative Phrasal Verbs Quiz

Agree with    Break into    Break up    Calm down    Catch up    Drop off
 Fall apart    Figure out    Get along with    Get in    Get on    Get off
 Get out    Give up    Give away    Hang out    Keep on    Let down
               Look forward to    Make fun of    Pay back

Part A. Write the correct idiom for each definition

|    | Phrasal Verb | Meaning                                                                                                     |
|----|--------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1  |              | To make a delivery. To drive someone somewhere                                                              |
| 2  |              | To become calm. To become relaxed.                                                                          |
| 3  |              | To spend relaxing time with friends                                                                         |
| 4  |              | To have the same opinion as someone else                                                                    |
| 5  |              | To quit something; to abandon                                                                               |
| 6  |              | To find a solution or answer to a problem or something you're confused about.                               |
| 7  |              | To enter a car (you sit to enter it), house or other building                                               |
| 8  |              | To end a romantic relationship between two people who aren't married. To end a band or other musical group. |
| 9  |              | To say mean, negative things about another person                                                           |
| 10 |              | To continue doing the same thing; to continue wearing the same clothes.                                     |
| 11 |              | To exit a bus, train, airplane, boat, etc. To leave work.                                                   |

|            |                 |                |           |          |          |
|------------|-----------------|----------------|-----------|----------|----------|
| Agree with | Break into      | Break up       | Calm down | Catch up | Drop off |
| Fall apart | Figure out      | Get along with | Get in    | Get on   | Get off  |
| Get out    | Give up         | Give away      | Hang out  | Keep on  | Let down |
|            | Look forward to | Make fun of    | Pay back  |          |          |

Part A. Write the correct phrasal verb for each definition

|    | Phrasal Verb | Meaning                                                                |
|----|--------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 12 |              | To be friendly with someone. To have a good relationship with someone. |
| 13 |              | To rob a house, building, car, etc.                                    |
| 14 |              | To give something for free                                             |
| 15 |              | To anticipate; to expect; to wait for something you really want        |
| 16 |              | To exit a car, house, or other building.                               |
| 17 |              | To get to the same level as others after you were behind               |
| 18 |              | To enter a bus, train, airplane, boat, etc.                            |
| 19 |              | To repay; to get revenge                                               |
| 20 |              | To disappoint                                                          |
| 21 |              | When something breaks down piece by piece                              |

|            |                 |                 |           |          |              |
|------------|-----------------|-----------------|-----------|----------|--------------|
| agree with | broke into      | broke up        | calm down | catch up | drop me off  |
| fell apart | figure out      | gets along with | get in    | get on   | get off      |
| get out    | give up         | gave them away  | hang out  | keep on  | let her down |
|            | look forward to | make fun of     | pay back  |          |              |

Part B: Complete the following sentences with the correct phrasal verbs

22. Tammy was expecting her husband to buy her flowers and take her to a nice restaurant for Valentine's Day, but he completely forgot about it. She was so disappointed. He really_____.
23. Robert is under a lot of stress in his life. His anxiety is causing him high blood pressure. Now he's trying yoga and meditation to _____.
24. "Chinese is an extremely difficult language to learn." "Yeah, I _____ you. Chinese is hard. I'm glad we're learning English instead."
25. Lupita asked her mother to buy her some new shoes. All of her shoes are old and falling apart. The other kids in school _____ her every time she wears them.
26. Carl is trying very hard to _____ cigarettes. He knows smoking is bad for his health, but it's so difficult to quit!
27. My cousin Tommy is a real people person. He _____ everybody and makes friends everywhere he goes.
28. Kim lost one hundred pounds after she changed her diet and started to exercise. All of her clothes were too big for her after she lost the weight, so she _____ to her overweight sister.
29. My car isn't working, so my wife is going to _____ at work in the morning, and pick me up in the evening. I'm so lucky she has a car too.
30. Come on, hurry up, Sally. Don't just stand there. _____ the car. We have to go. Why are you still in the yard?

|            |                 |                 |           |          |              |
|------------|-----------------|-----------------|-----------|----------|--------------|
| agree with | broke into      | broke up        | calm down | catch up | drop me off  |
| fell apart | figure out      | gets along with | get in    | get on   | get off      |
| get out    | give up         | gave them away  | hang out  | keep on  | let her down |
|            | look forward to | make fun of     | pay back  |          |              |

31. Our son left the door unlocked last night and thieves _____ our house. They stole our TV, computers, and all of my jewelry!
32. “Hey, what are you doing later? Do you want to _____?”
“Sure, let’s do it. We can go back to my house and play video games or maybe watch a movie!”
33. “Please sir, do you have a dollar? I don’t have enough money to _____ the bus.”
34. We have arrived at our destination. Take off your seatbelt and _____ of the car.
35. That book is over five hundred years old. As soon as I picked it up, it _____ in my hands!
36. Our heater broke down in the middle of winter. It was freezing in our house, so we had to _____ our winter coats all day.
37. Andy is so upset with himself. He fell asleep on the train, so he didn’t _____ at his stop. Now he’s late for work.
38. Irma was really depressed when her boyfriend _____ with her. He dumped her for her best friend. We took her out for drinks to try to cheer her up, but I don’t think it helped.
39. I _____ the day when my English is good enough for me to truly feel comfortable with the language. I anticipate that day, and if I continue to practice, I know it will come soon.

|            |                 |                 |           |          |              |
|------------|-----------------|-----------------|-----------|----------|--------------|
| agree with | broke into      | broke up        | calm down | catch up | drop me off  |
| fell apart | figure out      | gets along with | Get in    | get on   | get off      |
| Get out    | give up         | gave them away  | hang out  | keep on  | let her down |
|            | look forward to | make fun of     | pay back  |          |              |

40. Maggie missed a month of class and now she's so lost. She doesn't know if she'll ever _____.

41. Some people think that credit cards are free money, but they're not. You still have to _____ all the money you spend when you use them, and you have to pay interest!

42. People from all over the world have been working around the clock to _____ a way to stop climate change. It's a big problem and I really hope we can find a solution soon.