EDITING PRACTICE

Read the information below.

In sentences using the simple present tense, remember to:

- use the correct verb endings with third-person singular subjects; for example, he likes, she walks.
- watch out for verbs that have irregular forms in the simple present: be, have, and do.
- use the correct form of do and the base form of a verb in negative statements; for example, don't spend / doesn't spend.

Correct one mistake with the simple present tense in each sentence below.

For example, in sentence 1, if the mistake is "challenging" and the correct one is "challenged", just type "challenged".

1. I enjoy the work that I do because it's very challenging, but I doesn't like my boss.
2. My co-workers are supportive, friendly, and fun, and I enjoying spending time with them after work.
3. It's important to me to spend time with my family members, but it's difficult because they don't lives close to me.
4. Although my house is not big and fancy, my neighborhood are very safe.
5. My friends and I exercises together every day to stay healthy, and that contributes to our happiness.
6. My grandfather is still very active and spend a lot of time outdoors.
7. Most happy people has hobbies like hiking or playing a musical instrument.

LIVEWORKSHEETS