The umbrella man by Roald Dahl

Number the sentences in the order they appear in the story.

We lowered the umbrella
to hide our faces and peeped out from under it.

When we came out of the café it had started to rain.

I saw my mother looking at him suspiciously.

When he reached the other side of the street, he turned left, walking very fast.

I felt quite embarrassed by my mother's sharpness

We could see him clearly.

She saw me watching her.

I knew he was a gentleman

The little man shifted his umbrella from one hand to the other.

We stood on the pavement in the rain, looking for a taxi.

She fished into her purse and took out a pound note.

The barman turned away from him for a few seconds
