THE IMPORTANCE OF THE THREE CONCEPTS OF EVENTS IN HISTORY

There are three concepts or parts in every event in History:

1. The events leading to the main event – Describes the story of happened before the main event.
2. The main event – Describes the story of the important part or the highlight of the whole event
3. The aftermath – Describes the story of what happened after the main event.

Discuss:

1. What can you find out about the main event from reading the events leading to?

2. What can you find out about the main event?

3. What can you find out about the main event from reading the aftermath?
