

Vocabulary Homework: The Queen of Chess

Drag the word and drop it in the space that completes each sentence correctly.

slums – variations – represent – analysis – update

1. Chess has suffered little to no since it was first played hundreds of years ago.
2. Playing chess requires you to perform a deep before moving a piece.
3. Phiona grew in the in Uganda, Africa where there are little to no services and crime is high.
4. Phiona flew to Siberia in Russia to her country in a chess competition.
5. To give you an about her life, today, Phiona lives in the US, she's about to finish her studies and she helps her family in Uganda.

Replace the underlined words with the words given. Write them on the lines.

rely – blade – gear – rank – blistered – sheer

Climbing and rappelling are extreme sports which can't be practiced by the fainthearted.

Both sports require you to face unbelievable heights and very harsh conditions. First, you need specialized (1) EQUIPMENT that includes special shoes, ropes, helmets, etc. Second, you need to train a lot before facing a real almost (2) VERTICAL wall or mountain. Third, you need to form a team as in these sports you must (3) TRUST IN on others for safety reasons. Climbing alone in a deserted area may limit your possibilities to receive help if you're involved in an accident. Next, you have to be ready for pain. Pain from falls, from (4) INJURED hands caused from holding the ropes and the stones, and sore muscles from the strain you'll put them through. Finally, it's important to add that you must learn from the best. Look for a high- (5) LEVEL climber who can teach you well, so that you get to learn the best strategies and tips.