WRITING

Persuasive Writing In persuasive writing, you write to convince the reader of your opinion. To persuade the reader, you use facts to support your opinion. Write strong sentences that show you believe in what you are saying. Introduce your facts with expressions such as research shows, according to, and the facts show that.

Before Writing: Who are you going to write to? Who is the audience?

Step 1: What is your opinion?

Step 2: What is one reason why they should do or believe this?

Step 3: What is an example or fact that supports your opinion?

Step 4: State your opinion again.

Step 5: Write your paragraph
