

PSR REVISION 2

1. Fill in the blanks using the correct words given below.

light	rubber	pistil	caterpillar
fruits	electrical	renewable	camouflage
exercise	shadow	melting	full moon

- a) The _____ point of ice is a temperature at which ice changes from solid to liquid water.
- b) _____ forms when Earth is located between the Sun and the Moon.
- c) Using _____ energy is a way to protect and improve the environment.
- d) A butterfly larva is also known as _____.
- e) Healthy lungs, strong bones and muscles as well as having better rest and sleep can be achieved when we _____ regularly.
- f) The _____ develop from ovaries of fertilized flowers.
- g) _____ is a material that can be used for making tyres, kitchen gloves and shoes.
- h) The making of a magnet by wrapping a covered wire around a steel nail and connecting it to batteries is called _____ methods.
- i) When a plant was kept in a dark box for months, the plant is not green and healthy. This infers that the plant needs _____ to stay alive.
- j) Animals like leaf insect, stone fish and leafy sea dragon can _____ themselves to protect them from their enemies.