

LET'S UNDERSTAND

LANGUAGE FACT: Now, we will learn the differences between “TO and FOR”. Let's see the next statements:

- As subcultures emerge, distinct meanings form to define the scene's unique practices and cultural objects as well as to distinguish the subculture from mainstream culture.
- Indeed, a woman who has a child is not stigmatized for spending the majority of her day parenting the child, as motherhood is seen to be an important part of her identity.

ACTIVITY 5: Now, fill in the blanks with “to” or “for”:

1. I am writing an email ___ find out the details.
2. We're traveling ___ Singapore in two months.
3. They came ___ the results.
4. You're seeing Sue at the weekend, right? Can you give this present ___ her?
5. I have to prepare a report ___ the meeting.
6. I think they went a bit too far, but she was fired ___ being late.
7. They need ___ provide all their details before we sign the agreement.
8. He came quite early, at quarter ___ five.*
9. It was my birthday yesterday, and ___ my surprise, my friends organized a party ___ me.*
10. I stopped ___ a coffee.
11. I stopped ___ have a coffee.
12. We work together ___ finish faster.
13. This program is made ___ understanding new techniques.
14. The students want ___ practice English ___ the test.
15. It's 15 minutes from my house ___ the Gym.
16. They bought some pizza ___ the party.
17. The big box is ___ saving new documents, and the small one is ___ recycle bottles.
18. I need ___ call my brother.
19. This card is ___ your birthday.
20. I got these new shows ___ free!

Find out more about this topic in the “Appendix”