COLEGIO DE HUMANIDADES

English Department, 2021

| Total score | Student Score |
|---|---|
| | |

2° Medio– Vocabulary Quiz

| Name: | Date: | Class: |
|---|---|---|

Vocabulary Challenge

1. Match the bold words in boxes with their synonyms in purple.

| | |
|---|---|
| falsehood | secret |
| covert | a lie |
| bias | fight for a goal |
| to tune into something | to prove something is wrong |
| to be refuted | pay attention to... |
| to watch out for something | prejudice |
| to aim for something | keep an eye out |

2. Put the correct words from the previous exercise in the empty spaces below. Read the sentences carefully to put the correct words in context.

1. The government was accused of _____ military operations in Afghanistan.
2. What some politicians are doing on TV is to give information based on lies and _____.
3. The issue happening at the "Convención Constituyente" is _____ and full of prejudice.
4. Hey, _____! There is a huge hole on the highway.Be careful.
5. The theory about the Earth being flat was _____ long ago.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Complete the following dialogue applying the words studied.

Julia: Hey Max, what are you doing here in the library? A _____ mission? Hahah.

Max: Hi Juls, I am trying to _____ into a concentration mood . I need to study algebra. And you, why are you here.

Julia: I have a history test tomorrow. UGH! I hate history books because they are so _____. Some of those books show just one side of the real history and there is some _____ in their point of view.

Max: Yep, I agree. I _____ for a personal goal of reading justs the books I like and not just what I'm told to read.

Julia: It makes sense. That thought of "classic books" being the best must be _____ .
Oops! SHH! _____ out! The history and the literature teachers are here. Did they hear us?

LIVEWORKSHEETS