PRESENT PERFECT

EVER, NEVER, YET, JUST

Complete the sentences by putting never, ever, just and yet in the correct place.

1) I've had lunch. (just)
I've just had lunch.

2) I've seen the report, so I can't say if it was good or not. (just)

---

3) Has he finished the activity? It's getting late. (yet)

---

4) They've got back from work so they haven't started cooking dinner. (just - yet)

---

5) She has arrived from school. (just)

---

6) I have bought online, I don't trust on online websites to do it. I prefer going to the shops. (never)

---

7) A: Have you cheated on your love partner? (ever)
B: I have cheated on my partner. I couldn't do it. (never)

A: ---

B: ---

LIVEWORKSHEETS