

Choose the correct answer from the options.

- a. Which of the following is not a pointing device?
- b. An input device that captures text and pictures directly into the computer.
- c. Keyboard, mouse, joystick etc are common
- d. Output obtained on paper using a printer is called
- e. Which of the following is an input device?
- f. Which of these contain files as well as folders?
- g. Computers can be used to play games.
- h. Computers get tired and bored.
- i. Joystick is not a pointing device.
- j. Small pictures on the desktop are called icons.
- k. A file stores other files and folders.
- l. Save option is available in the edit menu.
- m. The new command is used to open a new document.
- n. The full form of CD is Compact Disco.
- o. Which button should be clicked to reduce a window to a button on the taskbar?
- p. The background of the desktop is called
- q. The new command is used to open a new document.