

Reading Skills: Comprehension

Read the given dialogue carefully and do the following activities.

Grandmas are great!

Teacher: Ali, can you tell some adjectives of feelings? Ali! Ali, you look lost somewhere! What're you smiling at?

Ali: Oh, sorry Sir. I'm truly sorry!
I'm thinking about my grandma.
She is coming home today from Karachi.

Teacher: This's good news. So, are you excited?

Ali: Yes Sir. She always brings gifts for the whole family.
I can't wait anymore!

Teacher: That means she's much caring and loving.

Ali: Indeed teacher! She not only tells bedtime stories and takes me to slides and swings in the park, but also helps me with my work.

Teacher: Ali, you've reminded me of my dearest grandmother. All grandmas are so full of love.

Activity#1: Choose the correct option to make a meaningful sentence about the given text.

- 'Grandmas are great!' is a piece of fiction / non-fiction because it is true / made up.
- It gives instructions. / enjoyment.
- The dialogue is between two characters:
 - Father and Son /
 - Teacher and Student

Activity#2: Match each question to its correct short answer.

Question	Answer
a. Does Ali tell some adjectives of feelings?	Yes, she is.
b. Does Ali's grandma always bring gifts for everyone?	Yes, they do.
c. Do Ali and his teacher love their grandmothers?	No, he does not.
d. Is your grandmother caring and loving?	Yes, she does.
e. Does Ali's grandma live in Lahore?	No, she does not.