PRESENT CONTINUOUS
WITH FUTURE MEANING

- WHEN YOU ARE TALKING ABOUT SOMETHING YOU HAVE ARRANGED TO DO. WE USE THE PRESENT CONTINUOUS

~ What are you doing tomorrow afternoon?
~ I'm going to the cinema.
~Are you playing football tomorrow?
~Yes, but Tom isn't playing. He has a broken leg.
~Ann is coming next Saturday.
~What time is she arriving?

1 Complete the blanks using the present continuous

1. Sam IS HAVING (have) lunch in the cafeteria tomorrow morning.
2. We _____ (go) to an exhibition tomorrow.
3. I _____ (not write) my blog this weekend.
4. Sam and I _____ (not sing) in the concert.
5. Mrs. Perkins _____ (give) a test to her students next Monday.
6. My cousins _____ (visit) their grandma on Sunday.
7. They _____ (have) dinner with us tonight
8. I _____ (go) to the shopping mall this weekend.
9. _____ we _____ (play) in the basketball game?
10. My sister _____ (go) to college next year.
11. _____ John _____ (come) to the party tonight?
12. Tomorrow is Saturday! I _____ (sleep) late.
13. My friends and I _____ (watch) a series on Netflix this Friday.
14. Sally put your phone away, We _____ (have) dinner soon.
15. I _____ (get) up early tomorrow.
16. Hurry! The train _____ (leave) in two minutes.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2 Choose the correct option and complete the conversation using the present continuous

Harry: What are you doing on Saturday?

Max: Not much. I _____ (play) football on Saturday morning, but I _____ (go) out after that.

Harry: Good! Liam and I _____ (have) a party at my house. A lot of friends _____ (come)

We _____ (have) a pizza party!

Max: Oh, right. Well, I _____ (do) anything on Saturday evening, so OK.

Harry: What's wrong? You don't seem very excited.

Max: Why _____ you and Liam _____ (have) a party? It's my birthday. I thought you were my friends.

Harry: We are! The party is for your birthday.

LIVEWORKSHEETS