

The 4 Types of Writing

Draw a line matching the type of writing to its description.

Descriptive

This style of writing tells a story. It has a beginning, middle and end. The details in the story can be real or fantasy.

Expository

This style of writing gives an opinion and reasons to support their choice. The reader decides if they agree or disagree.

Narrative

This style of writing paints a picture in the reader's mind by using details related to the 5 senses.

Persuasive

This style of writing gives details on a topic. It is filled with facts.