

Write the following notes in your Social Subjects book.

Name

Monday 13 th September, 2021

Science

Insects and Spiders

Both insects and spiders are invertebrates. They belong to a group called arthropods. Insects have three body segments; head thorax and abdomen. They also have 6 legs. Most insects also have wings and a pair of antennae.

Spiders have two body segments; head and abdomen. They have eight legs and eight eyes. Most spiders spin silk webs which they use to catch insects to eat.