

Read the instructions in every given activity.

Write the correct subject pronoun on the space provided for each question.

I have a computer.	It is my computer.
___ has a dog.	It is his dog.
___ has a new bike.	It is her bike.
___ have a house.	It is our house.
___ have good shoes.	They are your shoes.
___ have a kitten.	It is their kitten.

6 Read the notes about possessive adjectives. Look at the central column in exercise 3 on page 27 of your Student's Book. Can you see that all of the examples in the middle column are possessive adjectives?

Write a list of all the possessive

adjectives

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

Possessive Adjectives

show when something belongs to someone.
For example: This is my school.
He is wearing his uniform.
They are eating their lunch.
Can you see that my is telling you more about whose school it is? And their tells you the lunch belongs to them?

7 Complete this poem with possessive adjectives

I want _____ lunch, the baby cried
He stole _____ jersey, the boy just lied
They want _____ turn, the team replied
We want _____ break, the teachers sighed.

