

Science Quiz 8th Grade

I. Instructions: Read the statements and complete with the correct Word from the box.

Plants	prokaryotic(x2)	nutrition	Autotrophs	Eukaryotic cells(x2)
		Heterotrophs	Endosymbiotic theory

- There are two types of cells: _____ and _____.
_____ have a nucleus and have evolved from _____. This theory is called _____.
- _____ is a complex process, through which living organism exchange matter and energy with the environment to perform the vital functions of the organism. According to what they eat, living things are classified as: _____, _____. Among autotrophic are: _____.

II. Instructions: Look at the categories on the next chart. Write the Word or Drag and drop examples that best fit in each category.

Incomplete digestive system	autotroph	Function of living things	Consumers	Substances used for plant nutrition.

III. Instructions: Explain in your own words the next questions.

1. How is the digestion of plants developed?

2. Write two benefits of plants for other living things.

3. Write a reflection on the effects of the destruction of Green areas and forests on our planet.
