

By the time I'm...

Name: _____

Lee el texto y completa los espacios en blanco arrastrando las palabras que están debajo.

The world is _____ rapidly. Some for better, some for worse! New diseases are popping up all the time. _____ like the Ebola virus have the potential to wipe out huge amounts of the world's population. However, doctors and scientists are bound to have found a cure . With so much technology and funds _____, surely they will have _____ a vaccine within the next few months. Traditions & languages are _____ on almost a daily basis. In Mexico, recently the circus has _____ banned, some say for the good. But what else will _____ been banned in the next 20 years. What will our grandkids be doing for entertainment? Will technology have completely _____ over our lives? Whatever happens in the future, I'd like to think by the time I become a senior citizen I will have _____ a family and that I will be living the quite life on a beach somewhere... and I _____ to have struck it rich!

available

have taken

Epidemics

been

hope

disappearing

changing

raised

developed

By the time I'm...

Con base en el texto anterior responde true (verdadero) o false (falso) a las siguientes declaraciones.

Epidemics might eliminate millions of people.

true

false

Politicians have found a cure for Ebola.

true

false

Technology can help to producing vaccines faster.

true

false

Circuses have been forbidden to operate in Mexico.

true

false

The writer hopes to live on a mountain with their family.

true

false