Unit 1: Education: Student Study Hours

Lesson 1: Explore

Vocabulary

1 Use the vocabulary in the box to complete the sentences.

a I have three _____ of science today.

b My favourite _____ is mathematics.

c I have a lot of _____ to do tonight.

d I'm hungry, what time is the _____ ?

Vocabulary

subject – the different things you study at school (e.g. mathematics, science, English, Arabic etc.)

periods – a part of time when you learn a subject

lunch break – the time you eat lunch

homework – work your teacher gives you to do at home.

Reading PCM 1

2 Read Alex's email in PCM 1. Choose the best subject line and write it in the subject box in the email.

Vocabulary

subject line (email) – words to describe what the email is about

Writing Tip

The subject of an email helps the reader know what the email is about before they open it.

a Subject: exams

b Subject: my favourite subjects

c Subject: what my school is like

d Subject: I need help with my homework

PCM 1

Scan the QR Code to see the email.

3 Read the email again and circle what is included.

a picture	an introduction
the name of the sender	a phone number
paragraphs	the name of the receiver
a question	a website link

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4 Read the email again and mark the sentences as true (T) or false (F).

1	Alex is from England.	T / F
2	Alex studies 9 subjects at his school.	T / F
3	Alex has 7 periods a day.	T / F
4	Alex's school starts at 8:00 am.	T / F
5	The lunch break in Alex's school is 45 minutes.	T / F
6	Alex has 5 periods before lunch.	T / F
7	Alex wants to know about Mohamad's school.	T / F

Speaking

5 Think about your school. Discuss the questions below in pairs.

How many subjects do you learn in your school?

When does your school start and end?

How many periods do you have per day? How long is each period?

What breaks do you have?

Writing

6 Write notes about what you discussed in the table below.

start time	_____	number of breaks	_____
number of subjects	_____	break length	_____
number of periods per day	_____	lunch break length	_____
length of each period	_____	end time	_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Unit 1: Education: Student Study Hours

Lesson 2: Produce

Writing

1 Use the template to reply to Alex's email.

Remember to include:

- a subject line
- a greeting
- information about your school
- a sign off

Writing Tip

Remember to include a greeting in your emails. See the examples below.

I hope you are well.
Thank you for your email.
It's great to hear from you.

Also, remember to sign off the email. See the examples below.

Kind regards,
All the best,
Sincerely,

Scan the QR code to see the video.

To: AlexUK@abcdcomail.com

Cc:

Subject: _____

Dear Alex,

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS