Hi Lina,

Thanks for your e-mail. It's great that you were with your grandparents last summer. Here are some pictures of my friends Roger, Chris, and Val. We weren't together at summer camp this year. We were in different places.

The girl is my friend Val. She was at the zoo with her brother Tom. The animals were nervous, so they were nervous too. In the photo, Roger was at an amusement park. He was thirsty all the time because it was hot and sunny. The other boy is Chris. He was at a summer camp. He looks scared because there were very strange noises at night. I hope you like the photos.

Do you have plans for next year's vacation?

See you soon,

Alexa
