Fota Wildlife Park

Don't miss the 'cheetah run' at the park!

Fota Wildlife Park is an amazing wildlife in Cork, Ireland. It is on a small island and has about 200,000 square metres of grassland and woods. More than 70 species of exotic animals live on the island. There are cheetahs, giraffes, zebras, kangaroos and many more animals and they have a safe home here. Most of the animals run free areas like their natural environment. The park is open to the public and the people visit it from all over the world.

Visitor can walk around or take a safari jeep tour around the park to see the animals close up. Many epople enjoy watching the wardens feed the animals. Also, every day, there is a 'cheetah run'. Visitors can watch the cheetah run for the dinner. This is exciting because cheetah runs very fast- up to 100 kph! The cheetahs like this activity and it keep them healthy.

Visitors can also listen to the interesting wildlife talks at Fota. They can even adopt an animal and children can go to a summer camp there.

Fota Wildlife Park is the perfect place for a 'wild' family day out!
