What do you think makes a good teacher?

I think someone who's _____ but _____ and like someone who's got a sense of humor as well because if you're willing to have a laugh with your students, then like you're going to _____ their respect, so they're more _____ to listen to what you say.

There has to be kind of, _____ get you involved in the subject because if it's just _____ do this do that and they don't like talk to you as _____ either an individual or like on a personal basis, it's kind of just _____ they're talking to you not with you and they have to get you involved in the subjects for you to actually understand and help you understand it, so if they're more like kind of _____ over the _____ or _____ bit _____ about their subject, it kind of makes you think I'll they do it so I'm gonna do it as well. So, it's kind of actually more happy to do it.

They need to be not too _____ . They still need to be _____ , but they need to be able to _____ the class and see when like an individual is talking, they need to deal with _____ rather than the _____ class, I think.

I think, like someone who like helps you be _____ in lessons and just like really _____ things so helps you remember it. I'd say, _____ , the ability to _____ children and teenagers and everything like if they're really _____ about their subject then, that's important but also knowing how to _____ it to the context of their people's lives; that's very important because if it's not in the right context, then you really don't know how it relates to your life and it makes it seem a bit _____ learning it.

First thing that comes to my _____ I'd say, it's the ability to communicate with the class because I find my favorite teachers are the ones who can teach well but the ones who are able to _____ it to the class. And, it's not just being serious all the time, you have a bit of fun but main thing is what they've got for the lesson planned, they get _____ to you. We remember it and that's fine, because I have some teachers who really know their _____ but then, they're not able to sort of teach it to the children as well because it doesn't _____; so, I think that the best thing for a teacher to do is a bit to be able to _____ with its students.

I think _____ 'cause is like it even if you are strict, then it's like if the students or whoever if they know where they stand, then they're more _____ to do what you want.

I think they've got to be _____ like if you have a problem, then you can easy like go to them like they can help you sort it out and they've got to be, they've got to be firm then again the best it could be like a big kid, but they've got to be, like firm if you can't talk to them and have a bit of a _____ with them, as well as learning, then it kind of takes the _____ out of it and you need to have the _____ right between being able to relate to the students and talk to them about everyday things but also, having their _____ as well kind of knowing where to _____ the _____.

A good teacher is someone who listens a lot to you and responds to what you say, and they don't just _____ you and they like take you in completely and they like there for you all the time
