

How Wolves Change Rivers - Vocabulary match the words with their definitions a finding	not covered by trees or grass, naked food chain	(of a river or a road) to have many curves and bends to be aware	not movable or changeable to tumble	remains of animals that have been killed/hunted despite	a rodent that eats wood and builds dams in rivers radically	plants and animals that are connected because some eat others carrion	to prevent sb from leaving a dangerous place bare	a discovery

a bank	a lot, fundamentally fixed	land on the side of a river or a lake to trap	to roll down
a beaver	to know
to meander	in spite of