E-safety

Identity theft

Mariam and Sultan are learning about identity theft. Help them to complete the sentences below by selecting true or false.

Sentences	True/False
If someone asks for your address online, you should give it to them.
You should always keep your password safe and not tell anyone.
You should use any website you want online. They are all safe.
If someone asked for your password online, you should say no.
Using face ID is safer than a password.
Your email address is part of your identity.

LIVEWORKSHEETS