

1- Match the jobs in the box to the people. There is one extra job.

actor • artist • beautician • doctor • firefighter • journalist • mechanic • plumber • politician • receptionist

- 0 Ewa helps people when they are ill. doctor
- 1 Frank paints beautiful pictures.
- 2 People voted for David and he is now in the government.
- 3 Mary looks after women's skin and does their make-up.
- 4 Jonathan has rescued lots of animals and people from burning buildings.
- 5 Julie works in a hotel. She welcomes guests when they arrive and gives them their keys.
- 6 Carol works for the local newspaper.
- 7 Philip repairs motorbikes and cars.
- 8 James repairs water pipes.

2- Complete the sentences with phrasal verbs from the box. There is one extra verb.

cheer up • give up • make up • pick up • put up • stand up • take up • turn up

- 0 Don't look so sad – it's a holiday today. Cheer up!
- 1 Don't sit down when the head teacher comes into the classroom. You must stand up.
- 2 I can't do this test. I give up!
- 3 The teacher wanted the children to make up a story about space travel.
- 4 Can you pick up my bag for me? It's on the floor, over there.
- 5 I'm going to do a new sport. I think I'll take up windsurfing.
- 6 Gemma and Helena always turn up late for class.

2 Complete the conversation with the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

A: What's the matter, Josh?

B: I ⁰ had (have) a terrible day yesterday.

A: What ¹ happened (happen)?

B: Well, after ² play (play) football with you, I ³ go (go) to the library.

While I ⁴ study (study) there, somebody ⁵ steal (steal) my bike.

A: Oh, that's awful! What did you do when you ⁶ see (see) that the bike ⁷ disappear (disappear)?

B: Well, before ⁸ go (go) to the police station, I looked everywhere I could. Nothing. At the police station, an officer asked me lots of questions and as I ⁹ answer (answer) them, the strangest thing happened.

A: What?

B: Well, a man came in to the station. He ¹⁰ find (find) my bike!

A: So why are you so sad?

B: The bike was totally broken. I can't ride it any more.