Subject : One-day seminar

Dear Michael,

There is a one-day seminar titled SCORE-A in Excelsior Hotel in Ipoh on 3rd April. It is for Form 3 students. They give students tips on how to study and score for selected subjects. They are focusing on four subjects which are Bahasa Melayu, Science, Maths and History. My classmate, Anand and I are interested although it is a bit far for us. Since you stay there, would you like to come? Let me know as we have to register by the 15th of March.

 Subject : My apologies

Dear Faridah,

I am so sorry. I forgot to pass the reference book for PT3 Science that you wanted to Aunt Liza when she came to my house. This weekend my mum is planning to visit your grandma. She will give you the book. Hope it helps you. I like it as explanations are very clear.

Hamidah

- 6 Hamidah wants Faridah to know
- A that the book will be delivered the following week.
 - B that she is sorry for her mistake.
 - C that she is feeling bad for not passing the notes to her.

Siti,

I came to your house but you were not in. Sorry to trouble you but would it be possible for you to look after Sugar from 15th to 18th March? We have to attend my nephew's wedding in Penang. Sugar can remain in our house. We just need your help to feed her twice a day and make sure there is water for her to drink. She will get in and out of the house through the side window which we will leave open. She might come over to your house as usual.

Zainah

- 7 From the message, we know that
- A Zainah and Siti are relatives.
 - B Zainah will be going to Penang for a holiday.
 - C Sugar goes to Siti's house often.

SUNNY SUNDAY

As students, (0) I look forward to the weekends especially Sundays. After five days of school, extra-curricular activities, tuition and homework, we want to (9) relaxed. Saturdays are not spared either as we have to attend activities in school and go for tuition classes.

Last Sunday was heaven. I woke up at 9.30 a.m. and lazed in bed (10) at 10 a.m. At about 11.30 a.m, I had brunch; 'nasi lemak' that is fragrant rice cooked with pandan leaves in coconut cream and served with anchovies in spicy gravy, peanuts and cucumber slices. That was sufficient to make me laze again (11) and my best friends, Aptar Singh and Ah Chong came to my house. Mother was very happy to see (12) they and insisted that they have her 'nasi lemak' which pleased them greatly. Once our (13) tummy were full, we decided that we needed to have some fun. We wanted to go to the nearby beach. Immediately, my mother became alert. No way was she going to allow us to (14) went to the beach on our own. My dad, mum and little brother came along. We had a great time swimming and playing in the water. The weather was good and the sea was calm. As we (15) are leaving, we had a pleasant surprise. We met Dato' Sri Siti Nurhaliza (16) that is a very famous artiste. She was very friendly and even allowed us to take pictures with her. Mother was on cloud nine for days after this.

FATHER OF INDEPENDENCE

Tunku Abdul Rahman Putra Al-Haj ibni Almarhum Sultan Abdul Hamid Halim Shah, born in Alor Setar on 8th February 1903 was the first Chief Minister of the Federation of Malaya from 1955 to 1957 before becoming Malaya's first Prime Minister after independence in 1957. He resigned in 1970. Tunku Abdul Rahman is widely regarded as the founding Father of Malaya and Father of Independence.

He was the son of Sultan Abdul Hamid Shah and Che Manjalara, the Sultan's fourth wife from Thailand. He studied in Alor Setar Malay Primary School before furthering his studies at the government English school, Sultan Abdul Hamid College. Later, he studied in Debsirin School in Bangkok and Penang Free School. When he was 17, he won the Kedah State Government scholarship to further his studies at Cambridge University but he did not do well. He graduated with a Bachelor Degree of Arts in Law and History. In 1939, he took the English bar exam which he had failed a few times and passed. In 1949, he was called to the bar and named as deputy public prosecutor in the Malayan Federal Legal Department. In 1951, he left the Legal Department to embark upon a political career.

He was married thrice. His first wife, Meriam Chong Abdullah with whom he had two children, died of Malaria. His second marriage to Violet Coulson ended in divorce. Tun Sharifah Rodziah bt Syed Alwi Barakbah was his third wife. She passed away in 2000 at the age of 80.

During the Japanese Occupation, Tunku remained as District Officer for one year and later as Superintendent of Education. In 1942, he helped feed escapees from The Death Railway. In 1951, Tunku became president of UMNO. He spearheaded the alliance of UMNO (United Malays National Organization), MCA (Malaysian Chinese Association) and MIC (Malayan Indian Congress). At midnight on 30th August, he stood at the flagpole in Merdeka Square in Kuala Lumpur when the Union Jack was lowered for the last time and the new Federation flag of Malaya was raised. The Alliance party won the general elections in 1959 and 1964. The formation of Malaysia in 1963 was one of his greatest achievements. He died peacefully on 6th December 1990 at the age of 87.
