

Pepita Talks Twice

Vocabulary Words

stubborn headstrong or unyielding

grumble a silent complaint

mumbled said in a low, unclear way

exploded burst apart

darted moved swiftly

streak a quick flash of movement

languages systems of sounds and symbols used to communicate ideas

I noticed Pepita could speak two languages.

Pepita darted to her neighbor's yard when the water hose exploded!

Pepita was stubborn and liked to mumble and grumble about everything.

A streak of light went through the sky when we were at lunch.

Practice: Write the vocabulary word that completes each sentence.
(Complete in your exercise book)*

1. I noticed that my neighbors could speak two _____.
2. "I want my friends to listen when I talk," _____ Pepita.
3. I wish you wouldn't _____ I can't hear you clearly
4. My _____ dog _____ across my neighbor's yard like a _____ of lightning when I called his name.
5. The classroom _____ with laughter when the teacher was being silly.