

Choose a, b or c.

1. Paul hurt his leg, so he couldn't ____ the ball.
a. throw b. catch c. kick
2. George wanted to play cricket with us, but he didn't know the ____.
a. rules b. points c. origins
3. My brother and I don't really ____ much in common.
a. hold b. have c. get
4. Messi ____ the ball around the goalkeeper to score an amazing goal.
a. bounced b. dribbled c. caught
5. Everyone was outside the stadium at 8 pm ____ for Kevin.
a. except b. related c. describe

Complete the text with the Present Simple Passive of the verbs in brackets.

Rounders is a sport which 1 _____ (play) by people across the globe, but it is most popular in the UK. Adults sometimes play, but it 2 _____ mostly _____ (enjoy) by schoolchildren. It is similar to baseball and each team has nine players. However, gloves 3 _____ (not wear) by the players, as in baseball, and the bat is shorter. Also, in rounders, the ball 4 _____ (not throw) overarm as in baseball, but underarm. Points 5 _____ (score) by hitting the ball and trying to run around the four bases which make up the diamond on the field. Rounders is not as popular as baseball and players 6 _____ (not pay) as much as baseball players. Of course, that doesn't mean schoolchildren don't have just as much fun playing it.

