

UNIT 7: HEALTHY & WISE

Let's learn.

Every sentence has a subject and a verb. The verb usually tells what the subject is or does.

- A. The indefinite pronouns anyone, everyone, someone, somebody, no one, nobody are always singular subjects. Therefore, they require singular verbs.

Examples: Everyone has to be present in the meeting.
Somebody has taken her diary.
Nobody is allowed to leave the hall.

- B. Collective nouns take a singular verb, such as a group, a team, a committee, a class, and a family.

Examples: The team practises hard before their final match.
The committee decides to go ahead with the plan.
The family has a lot of pets.

Identify the error (verb form) in the sentences.

Sentence	Correction
They likes to eat at fast food restaurants once in a while.	_____
These restaurants sells food like hamburgers, sausages, pizzas, and chips.	_____
Everybody know Encik Hakimi.	_____
Many people is at the park. They is jogging.	_____
I has two sons and a daughter.	_____