

MOVING OUT

Vocabulary:

To move: déménager

to rent: louer

to give notice: avertir

Landlord: propriétaire

Read the story:

Paul and Veronica need to move.

Their apartment is too small.

They are building their new house.

They're going to move on August 1st, 2021.

They're going to rent a truck to help them move.

Their friends are going to help them move too.

They have to give notice to the landlord three weeks before they move.

They are writing a letter.

They are going to give the letter to their landlord tomorrow.

Are these sentences about the present (now) or the future?

- Type P besides the sentences that are present
- Type F besides the sentences that are future

Read the sentences. Choose Yes or No:

Paul and Veronica's apartment is too small.

Yes      No

They are going to move in September.

Yes      No

They have a truck.

Yes      No

They are going to give notice in July.

Yes      No

They are writing a letter to the landlord.

Yes      No

They are going to give the letter to their Landlord in August.

Yes      No