Some people in the world of fashion are millionaires. But the simple workers often live and work in terrible conditions. Many of these workers live in India, Bangladesh and China.
A young woman saw the terrible conditions of workers in Asia and she became very angry. She wanted workers to get a good salary for their hard work so she decided to change things for them. Her name was Safia

Minney and she was 22 years old.

In 1991, Safia started People Tree, a new fashion company. People Tree sells beautiful dresses, trousers, shirts and sweaters in shops and online. At People Tree, fashion is ethical and ecological. That means they make all of their clothes with respect for people and the planet. The clothes aren't cheap because all the workers get a good salary. People Tree is changing the lives of its workers and slowly helping to change the world. And Safia? She is famous because of her work. She has got offices in London and Tokyo and she travels to Asia, Africa and Latin America to visit her workers and distributors.
