Name: _____ Date: _____ Grade 5

Grammar
Interjections

An Interjection is an exclamatory word used to express strong emotion or surprise. A comma or an exclamation point sets off an interjection from the rest of the sentences, based on strength of the emotion.

Ouch! That bee stung me!
Hey, you can't stand there.

In the following sentences choose the correct interjection to complete the sentence.

1. _____, I stepped into a lumpy brown puddle of mud.

   a. Eww b. Huh c. Mmm d. Whee

2. _____, that swarm of bees are heading right for us.

   a. Duh b. Hooray c. Phew d. Uh oh

3. _____, did you see that prank Brer Bouki pulled on Brer Rabbi?

   a. Blah b. Ha-ha c. Mm-hm d. Yum

4. _____, I forgot to close the refrigerator door, now my ice-cream has melted.

   a. Ah b. Hooray c. Oops d. Whew

Prepared by Ms. Lauranell Deleveaux 2020 –Grade 5

LIVEWORKSHEETS

B. Choose an interjection from the box that best completes the sentences below by placing the correct word on the blank spaces prvided.

Bravo!	Gross!	Oh no!	Ouch,
Sorry	Woohoo!	Yay!

5. _____ My mother is making my favorite Bahamian dish and desert.

6. _____ You received the highest score on the Kahoot game!

7. _____ I am not able to attend your graduation ceremony.

8. _____ What a great carnival ride!

9. _____ My little Potcake puppy ran away.

10._____ My leg is caught on this barbed wire fence!

Prepared by Ms. Lauranell Deleveaux 2020 –Grade 5

LIVEWORKSHEETS