What is CSS?

PART 1

Watch the video and complete the following information

CSS stands for _____. Web development is made up of three elemental files that is the _____ file, the _____ file and the _____ file. The HTML file and the JavaScript file are responsibles for the_____ and the _____ elements respectively, CSS is responsible for _____ . CSS makes sure what elements look like on a web page. For instance, the _____, the _____ that is in there and the position of _____. It also provides _____.

PART 2

- There are three ways in which CSS cascades
1. Through _____
2. through multiple _____ and one _____ .
3. CSS is stored in the form of a _____ in your local machine when you save it.
- _____ is a way of selecting different elements on a HTML page.
- ID is used to _____ a very unique element on a HTML page. They can't be shared and they must be unique.
- On the other hand, a class can be added to _____ elements. So a class can be added to three different elements and it will apply style to the three different elements