

Match the following major computer functions with its correct definition.

| | |
|---------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Input | Information displayed for the user on the monitor. |
| Storage | Turning the data into information by organizing, manipulating or calculating. |
| Output | Entering data into their computer by typing, using the mouse, scanning, etc. |
| Process | computer saves the information and the data as storage |