	Epilepsy	Alzheimer's
What is it?	is a chronic disease affecting the central nervous system. It causes abnormal brain activity which can lead to seizures.	people will experience memory loss/ confusion, behavior changes, speaking, walking and eating difficulties
Who does it affect?	it is more common in young children and older adults.	Above 65 years/ Women are more affected than men
Signs and symptoms	have a stiff body / have noisy, difficult breathing/ Uncontrolled movements/ fall down/ suddenly become unresponsive or unconscious. 	difficulty remembering newly learned information/ forgetting people's names, or the names of everyday things. ~getting lost in familiar places.
Treatment	~anti-epileptic medications/ high healthy fats and low carb diet. Brain surgery	There is no cure/ Some medications to help with memory problems.

LIVEWORKSHEETS