

Vocabulary and grammar test “Family Relationships”

I. Match the words in columns.

1.	support	A.	лысеть
2.	a close-knit family	B.	избегать
3.	go bold	C.	сплочённая семья
4.	to be the breadwinner	D.	поддерживать
5.	to avoid	E.	быть добытчиком

II. Match the words with their definitions.

1.	offend	A.	a married family including parents and their children
2.	sentimental	B.	someone's sisters and brothers
3.	a nuclear family	C.	hurt someone's feelings
4.	siblings	D.	feeling sure about your own skills and abilities
5.	confident	E.	feeling sadness, love, etc.

III. Choose the correct option.

1. She's got a small nose, big eyes and has a lot of make up in / at / on.
2. We really get on / with / to well in / on / with each other, spend a lot of time together which is fun.
3. This person is on / in / with his mid-fifties.
4. My parent are always ready to give me a shoulder to cry about / on / with and they can always rely at / in / on.
5. My mum is a psychologist so she can deal on / about / with any problem easily.

IV. Fill in the gaps with the missing words from the box:

beans	shoulder	support	get	charming
sentimental	forehead	confident	hazel	breadwinner
rely	late thirties	spiky	close-knit

I think I've got a _____ family. It's so good if you have someone you can _____ on. The fact that my dearest will always give me a _____ to cry on makes me feel more _____.

My dad is in his late forties. He's the _____ in our family. My mum is in her _____ but she looks much younger with her _____ eyes and a _____ smile. My brother is in his teens. He's got a wide _____ and _____ hair. My granny is a _____ old lady in her mid-sixties. Now she is retired but she is full of _____. We _____ on very well and always _____ each other.

V. Correct one mistake in each sentence. Write the whole sentences:

1. I expect they are going to visit us at the weekend.

2. My mum is very energetic and crazy with shopping.

3. I will go to the party if my friend come with me.

4. Will you go to the theatre with us at the weekend?

5. If the weather will be nice, we'll go swimming.