

Choose a phrasal verb to replace the words in brackets.

The meeting had to be _____ (postponed to a later date).

- (a) set off
- (b) put off
- (c) laid off
- (d) set to

The film begins at 8.30. I'll _____ you _____ at 8.15.

- (a) pick/up
- (b) take/out
- (c) collect/up
- (d) run/up

Tom is depressed. He's finding it difficult to _____ his divorce.

- (a) get over
- (b) get past
- (c) go after
- (d) give away

There is no more sugar. Never mind - we can do _____ it!

- (a) dispense of
- (b) make up
- (c) take off
- (d) do without

Teaching is not easy. Sometimes they have to _____ aggressive children.

- (a) handle to
- (b) deal with
- (c) cope on
- (d) work out

Alan met Julie by accident. He _____ her at the supermarket.

- (a) walked into
- (b) crashed into
- (c) bumped into
- (d) banged into

The boss wants to know how we can _____ the decrease in sales.

- (a) make up
- (b) break down
- (c) add up
- (d) account for

If we _____ of petrol on this isolated road, we'll be in trouble!

- (a) lack in
- (b) run out
- (c) stay out
- (d) roll out

Sometimes fighting _____ among supporters at football matches.

- (a) takes off
- (b) starts up
- (c) breaks out
- (d) rises up

There will be no press conference tomorrow. It has been _____.

- (a) called off
- (b) taken back
- (c) put away
- (d) set off