

Name:

Date:

Year:

EXERCISE 15.7: PARTS OF A FLOWER (PART 2)

1. Choose the correct part of the flower for its function (use)

Ovule

Ovary

Filament

Petal

Stigma

Anther

Function	Parts of a flower
1. To hold the anther
2. To attract insect
3. When mature, it becomes fruit
4. When mature, it becomes seed
5. To receive pollen grains
6. To produce pollen grains

2. What is the main function of sepals in a flower?

- A. To protect the flower during bud stage.
- B. To prevent insects from entering the flower.
- C. To make the flower more colourful and attractive.
- D. To produce scents for attracting insects.

3. Figure 1 shows a cross-section of a flower.

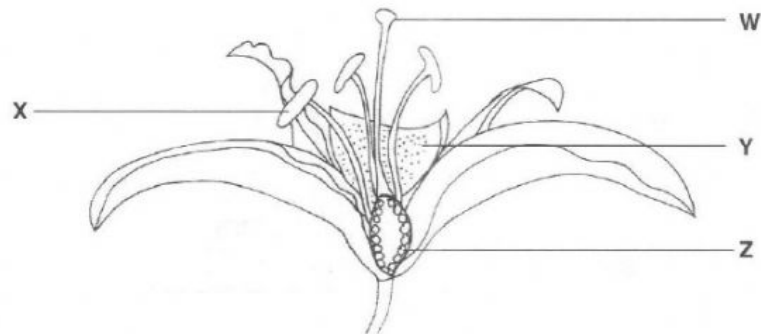

Figure 1

Which parts contain the male and female sex cells?

	Male sex cells	Female sex cells
A	W	X
B	X	W
C	X	Z
D	Y	Z

4. Minah used her scientific drawing skills to draw and label her diagram based on her observation of a real flower shown in Figure 2.

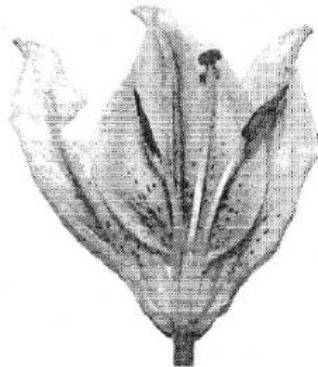

Figure 2

Which of the following best represents a scientific diagram of the flower?

