SENTENCE TRANSFORMATION

Part 1: Choose the correct clauses of purpose for each sentence.

1. I'll give you my phone number _____ contact you later.
2. He speaks French _____ they can understand him.
3. John studied hard _____ he wanted to enter the university.
4. Shall we book a table _____ three people?
5. I helped him _____ he could finish early.
6. He hurried _____ not to miss the train.
7. We'll take our gloves with us _____ it is cold outside.
8. Sue is saving money _____ go on holiday.
9. I'll give you my email _____ you can write to me.
10. He went up to his room _____ sleep.
11. Peter quickly shut the window _____ prevent the rain from getting in.
12. You need a short break _____ avoid getting too tired.

Part 2: Use the words in the brackets to write a second sentence with the same meaning as the first sentence.

Eg. Meryl learns English. She wants to study in London after school. (to)
Meryl learns English to study in London after school.

1. Bill studied hard. He didn't want to fail his History test. (so as not to)
   _____
2. She saved up some money. She wanted to buy a new car. (to)
   _____
3. We don't tell our granny the bad news. She won't worry. (so that)
   _____
4. He went to the dentist. He had a simple check-up. (for)
   _____
5. I took my umbrella. It might rain later. (because)
   _____
6. Jane took the train to the station. She wanted to avoid getting stuck in traffic. (in order to)
   _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS