UNIT 4: WORD FAMILY

VOCABULARY:

1. respect (v)
(noun) respect ≠ disrespect
respectability
respecter respectfulness
(adjective) respectable respected respectful ≠ disrespectful respective (verb) respect ≠ disrespect
(adverb) respectably
respectfully ≠ disrespectfully
respectively
2. donate sth to sb/sth (v)
- donor (n):
- donation (n)
3. impairment (n)
- impair (v):
- impaired (adj):
4. charity (n)
- charitable (adj)

PRACTICE

Complete these sentences with the correct form of the word "RESPECT".

1. The leaders met to discuss the problems facing their .....countries .
2. Gary simply sat with an admiring and …… look on his face.
3. Her exam results were …… enough.
4. Tony was always in trouble with the police when he was young, but now he's a …… married man.
5. He is generous and highly …… in the district.
6. If children were taught to be more …… towards their elders, maybe these crimes wouldn't happen so often.
7. My tow sons are aged 8 and 5 ……..
8. I would rather you didn't speak …… about my weaknesses.

Complete these sentences with the correct form of the word "DONATE".

9. An anonymous ……. has given 2 billion Vietnamese dongs to helping the needy in storm-stricken areas.
10. Recently a local publishing company has ……. textbooks to poor children.
11. He made a large ……. to Cancer Research.

Complete these sentences with the correct form of the word "IMPAIR".

12. An important part of this work is the provision of cash grants to visually……. people in need.
13. Pollution, though often more insidious in its effects, can cause ill-health and even permanent intellectual ……..
14. Alcohol significantly ……. your ability to drive a car or operate machinery.

Complete these sentences with the correct form of the word "CHARITY".

15. He was very generous, contributing time and money to a number of ……. organizations.
16. They were poor, but they were too proud to accept ……..

LIVEWORKSHEETS