Reading

Jacky lives in London. She's eleven years old. Her house is opposite a park and her school is next to Wembley Stadium. Before, there were gardens opposite her school, but now there's only a car park. After school, she goes swimming with her friend, Carla, and then they play football. Carla is also eleven years old but Carla is taller than Jacky. Carla wants to be a famous footballer. Her grandad was a good footballer when he was young.

Last week they went shopping in Oxford Street and they visited the National Gallery. They saw a lot of pictures there. They really liked it. Jacky likes painting and she wants to be a famous painter. She's going to study Art and Carla's going to study sport.
