Betty was scared to death. She was about to fall when two strong hands grabbed her and pulled her up.

It was one of the tour guides, who noticed she wasn't with them and started looking for her. Betty was very relieved to be safe.

Their first walk was up to the mountains. The view was really amazing! There were beautiful, wild flowers everywhere, so Betty decided to stop and take some photos. But, when she looked around a few minutes later, she was all alone!

Betty walked down the path when suddenly she felt the ground shaking. She started falling down the mountain but she managed to grab onto a rock. She shouted as loudly as she could, but there was no answer.

Betty always wanted to go to the Swiss Alps and now she was finally there. There were a lot of interesting people in her group and the tour guides were very experienced and friendly. Betty couldn't believe she was away from the city at last!
