

Drawing Conclusions using Must

A. Complete the conversations with symptoms vocabulary or must.

1. Sorry, I can't go to school today, I have a _____ in my neck.

I don't sound well; you must feel terrible.

2. Hello, Jenny where are you?

Hi, Mary. I feel a little dizzy, I _____ be sick.

3. I don't know what happened to my husband.

If your husband feels sick, he _____ want to come to the party.

4. The doctor said I should come tomorrow.

That's great. It _____ be an emergency.

5. I have been _____ all day.

That is terrible, you must be with a cold.

6. The doctor gave me a couple of pills.

I think those pills are too strong, I feel _____.

7. I have been _____ since yesterday.

You should go to the doctor.

8. I can't travel next week. Excuse me boss.

I have a terrible pain in _____.

9. When I was young. I used to get sick a lot.

Normally, I feel _____.

Will be able to: Modals may and might.

A. Complete the statements to express a future ability or probability.

1. I _____ to go on holidays next week.
2. They _____ (not) to travel this week.
3. The Doctor _____ (not) to receive you in two days.
4. She _____ need to come to the doctor right away.
5. The athletes _____ (not) need to go to the doctor.
6. I think I _____ be a little sick this morning.
7. She _____ have time to see you this afternoon.
8. I _____ need to get an examination.
9. I feel dizzy, I _____ (not) be able to get a blood test.
10. I _____ have to get an x-ray in the hospital.