

Yeah! Back to School!!

LI: Read for meaning

Tomorrow we are going back to school. I am going to walk to school with my friend and Mum is going to pick me up in our car after school. It has been such a long time since we have been in a classroom. I have almost forgotten what it is like. I will see all of my friends and my teachers. It will take us a bit of time to get used to being in a classroom again and I know it will be hard because we have to get used to school and classroom rules again. I think my parents will be glad I am going back to school even though I think they will miss me terribly.

The first thing I will do when I get to school is hang up my bag and play bull rush, then I will go onto the junior playground. I know we are not allowed on the playground without a teacher looking after us but they will be in the staff room having a meeting like they always do so they won't know.

When all of my friends are here, we will play a bit, then at eight-thirty we will have to go into the classroom. It will be a long, fun day. I can't wait!
