

FINITE VERBS OR NON-FINITE VERBS

Finite verbs change their forms when there is a change in the number or person of the subject. Finite verbs also have different forms in different tenses.

Non-finite verbs do not change their form when the number or person of the subject changes. There are mainly three types of non-finite verbs: infinitives, gerunds and participles.

Write "1" for finite verbs. Write "2" for non-finite verbs.

1. My little brother wants to be an actor.
2. She worked hard to pass the test.
3. I couldn't solve the problem.
4. To err is human.
5. Your duty is to cross the river without getting noticed.
6. The doctor is attending to the injured people.
7. She opened the door.
8. The students were asked to submit their assignments by Friday.
9. The teacher encouraged the students to work hard.
10. The dog wagged its tail to show its happiness.
11. He helped me open the gate.
12. Cycling to work is a good way to keep fit.
13. The man working at Costco lives in Seattle.
14. The elephant born in captivity was set free.