Plurals - Under each picture, fill in the blanks with the correct number of animals and change the animal name to plural (eg. One bird > three birds). The first has been done for you as an example.

Remember: To make a noun plural in Spanish:

- Words ending in a consonant: +ES eg. Un árbol. Dos árboles.
- Words ending in a vowel: +S eg. Una mesa. Dos mesas.
- Words ending in Z: Change Z to C, then +ES eg. Un lápiz. Dos lápices.

Una rana > Dos ranas
(One frog > Two frogs)

Un leon > _____

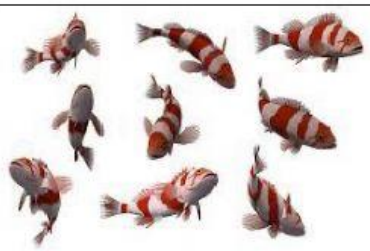

Un caballo > _____

Una araña > _____

Un conejo > _____

Un pez > _____

Nombre _____ Fecha_____

Verbo Ser - For each sentence, write either ´Es´ or ´Son´ in the blank. To work it out, check if the word is plural or singular.

The first has been done for you as an example.

1. El gato es blanco. (The cat is white).
2. La araña _____ grande.
3. El caballo _____ bonito.
4. Los peces _____ pequeños.
5. La marisposa _____ linda.
6. Los conejos _____ tímidos.

Optional – Extension

Change the singular sentences to plural. Remember that you need to make every word in the sentence plural, not just the animal.

Reminder:

The = El > Los La > Las

The first has been done for you as an example.

1. El gato es blanco. (The cat is white).

Los gatos son blancos (The cats are white)

El → Los
Gato → Gatos
Es → Son
Blanco → Blancos

2. El caballo es bonito. (The horse is beautiful).

_____(The horses are beautiful).

3. La araña es grande. (The spider is big).

_____(The spiders are big).
